Real Estate and General Legal Services

Real Estate

Purchasing or selling a home, or any property for that matter, can be both exciting and stressful depending on the individual circumstances. Whether you are:

- Purchasing a home or investment property
- Selling a home
- Co-Op / Condominium Transactions
- New Construction
- Refinancing an Existing Mortgage

You will need an experienced legal team who can represent you in all real estate matters and guide you through the necessary steps to a successful transaction. From title searches to deed filings, the real estate team at Finkelstein & Partners is proactive, responsive, and experienced, which allows them to move deals along quickly.

General Legal Services

Individuals or families often come to us in need of trusted legal representation for sensitive or complicated issues. We understand that when someone is facing any of the issues noted below, they need a legal team who is highly experienced and will understand the complexities of their situation.

Wills, Trusts And Estates

Estate planning involves creating one or more of the following documents depending on your need, financial status and status of your potential beneficiaries. Creating these documents will save time and money and alleviate unnecessary stress in challenging times.

- Last Will and Testament
- Trusts
- Health Care Proxies
- Durable Powers of Attorney
- Living Wills

Taking the time to complete these documents will greatly reduce confusion and legal costs upon death, or if one has limited ability to make their own decisions. Finkelstein & Partners, LLP also represents legal representatives (executors) of estates to facilitate estate administration.

Probate And Estate Administration

When an individual dies, his or her assets are not automatically transferred to their heirs and beneficiaries. Our firm can assist in the legal process to carry out the terms of a Will, or if the person dies without a Will distributing their assets to their legal heirs. These services include:

- Will Probate / Estate Administration
- Filing a Petition with Surrogates Court
- Appointment of an Executor / Administrator
- Advising on distribution of assets and payment of debts
- Filing all other necessary documents with Surrogates Court
- Preparing and filing all deed transfers
- Closing out the estate

Family Court

Our experienced attorneys add a unique quality to our Family Court practice. We will represent you in all types of proceedings in Family Court, including:

- Custody • Child Support • Spousal Support
- Paternity • Visitation • Modifications
- Orders of Protection

In order to assert your rights and protect your interests in these areas contact us today. There is no better time than the present to take action and improve your situation for yourself and your family.
